Marked Communications is a full-service branding and digital marketing agency based in India. We help SMBs, D2C brands, and ambitious businesses grow through bold strategy, creative design, data-driven SEO, and performance marketing — all under one roof.

We're not just an agency. We're the bold creative partners who believe boring marketing is a crime. From a fresh logo to a full-scale brand launch, we build brands that are impossible to ignore.

To empower businesses with strategies, creativity, and digital solutions that drive real, measurable growth — while always making sure every brand we touch stands out in a crowded market.

To be India's most trusted branding and marketing partner for SMBs and D2C brands — building lasting brand legacies with creativity, data, and bold thinking.

Proof that our strategies deliver real results — not just pretty deliverables.

Doggy Ji

Web Design · Development · SEO

Built a fully custom, SEO-optimised e-commerce website for Doggy Ji, a premium pet care brand. The new site improved UX, increased organic visibility, and boosted online sales within the first quarter post-launch.

Kor Beauty

Web Design · Development · SEO

Designed and developed an elegant, conversion-focused website for Kor Beauty. The project included brand-aligned UI/UX design, mobile optimisation, and an SEO foundation that grew organic traffic month-on-month.

Positive7

Web Design · Development · SEO

Created a modern web presence for Positive7, a travel and wellness brand. The site combines strong visuals with an SEO-first content structure to attract and convert high-intent visitors.

iTronics Apple Reseller

Social Media Marketing · Paid Advertising (PPC)

Managed social media and ran performance ad campaigns for iTronics, an authorised Apple reseller. The campaigns drove measurable footfall and online enquiries, with strong ROAS across Meta Ads.

Fortune Brass

Web Design · Development · SEO

Delivered a professional B2B website for Fortune Brass Industries, including product catalogues, brand-consistent design, and SEO optimisation to improve search visibility in the manufacturing sector.

"Working with Marked Communications has been a great experience. They built our website, handled our social media, and even ran ads. They helped us grow. Would definitely recommend them to anyone looking for a solid digital marketing team."

Ruchira Singh — Founder, Raah Naturals & Actor

"Marked Communications was great to work with — clear communication, good ideas, and execution. They understood our vision and brought it to life effortlessly. Good work!"

Vineet Kumar Singh — Founder, Raah Naturals

"Partnering with Marked Communications has transformed our digital presence. Their innovative strategies and dedicated team have significantly boosted our brand visibility and engagement."

Ananya Sharma — Marketing Head

"Their team truly understands brand building. The results speak for themselves — more visibility, more engagement, and a much stronger online presence."

Sneha Kapoor — Marketing Head
